

Year R Topic (3): Frozen Superheroes

Hook: Super veg representation following a classroom invasion of evil peas

Learning Opportunities:

Designing superhero comic strips

Investigating frozen superheroes in the water tray

Writing letters to evil pea in order to save Supertato

Writing speech bubbles for super vegetable representations

Throwing beanbags at tricky word superheroes on builder's tray

Making number bonds to ten using Numicon city scapes

Acting out super vegetable stories in small groups

Working collaboratively to design a superhero obstacle course to pre-school

Using money to buy fruit during daily snack and chat sessions

Creating superhero news reports using small world scenes

Learning about people who help us in the community

Superhero bodies, vital organs and being healthy

Food tasting using superhero senses

Investigating the effect of different liquids on our teeth

Comparing resting heart rate to heart rate after exercise

Superhero gymnastics with Mrs Gardner in PE

Designing, labelling and painting superhero eggs

Creating a parachute contraption for the superhero egg drop challenge

Using bee bots and remote control cars to transport the superheroes

Investigating forces (friction) using cars and ramps

Creating a class pictograph of Reception's favourite vegetables

Representation of superhero vehicles

Performing superhero shows using role-play costumes

Superhero phone book for dialling numbers during continuous provision

Jedi phonics with foam lightsabers

Matching giant numicon to foam numerals during continuous provision

Ordering superhero numbers on the washing line

Topic Songs:

One Supertato, two supertato, three supertato, four.

Number bonds to ten song

Doubling Song

Number formation rhymes

Visitor: Rachael (School Crossing Patrol Officer)

Role Play areas/displays:

Superhero Bat Cave

Fire Station

Supertato Supermarket

Doctors Surgery/Hospital

Goal: Superhero Obstacle Course to parents'