

Year R Topic 2018/19 (5): Supertato and The Evil Escapees!

Hook: Sharing Super Veggie representations following a class invasion of Evil Peas

Learning Opportunities:

Writing letters to Evil Pea in order to save Supertato

Designing Wanted Posters to help the police catch the Evil Pea

Labelling Super Veggie representations using phonics knowledge

Writing comic strips based on Super Veggie representations

Throwing beanbags at 'tricky word' Supertatoes

Using different combinations of coins during Snack and Chat

Learning about 'People Who Help Us' in the community

Superhero bodies, learning about vital organs and being healthy

Food tasting using Superhero Senses

Supertato Games in Physical Education

Tri-Golf and Football with Year 2 in Physical Education

Designing, labelling and painting Superhero eggs

Creating a parachute contraption for the Superhero egg drop challenge

Designing traps to catch the Evil Pea using different media and materials

Investigating forces (friction) using cars and ramps

Doubling vegetables for Supertato soup

Sharing the Evil Peas into equal groups

Working collaboratively to design a Supertato themed game for parents

Topic Songs:

One Supertato... two Supertato... three Supertato... four...

Number bonds to ten song

Doubling Song

Number formation rhymes

Year R Visitors for 'People Who Help Us' week:

Police Officers from Portchester - PC Stevenson

Dentist - Mrs Daraz

Foundation Friday with pre-school (transition)

Retelling the story of Supertato using vegetable props

Super Vegetable creative representation

Evil Pea/Supertato and Veggies Assemble parachute games

Measuring different vegetables and ordering by weight and length

Vegetable printing (making repeated patterns)

End Goal: Superhero Training Day with parents

